

An Evening of Soulful & Mellifluous Music
Classical, Semi-Classical and Sufiana

Ramneek Singh

"Ramneek's greatest asset is her voice....fresh and sweet. Her range is commendable, spanning almost three octaves"

- The Hindustan Times

"Each item was elaborated in toto, be it bol-alaap, bol-taan, or gamak-taan....revealed her deep understanding of the raag"

- India Abroad

"Versatile voice...clear even in the upper register"

- Prof. Ruckert, MIT

"Music is her Life....Singh's deep devotion and dedication was apparent throughout the concert"

- CanIndia

5:30 - 6:30 pm
Snacks & Tea

6:30 - 8:00 pm
Concert

Friday
20 February, 2015

31247 Fredi Street
Union City, CA

accompanied by

Ustad Surinder Mann (Tabla)

Anand Karve (Harmonium)

Contact,

Prof. Dalbir Singh (510) 324-8874
(510) 209-3213

Pradeep Joshi (408) 394-0554
Surinder Mann (408) 733-7679

www.RamneekSingh.Com

Suggested Minimum Donation $15

Ramneek Singh is an accomplished Hindustani vocalist from Ustad Amir Khan's Indore Gharana. She performs regularly at prestigious festivals in India and North America, including the Harivallabh Festival at Jalandhar and the Tansen Samaroh at Gwalior. She currently has three professional CDs, Ibaadat, Naad, and Gobind Naam. Ramneek recently sang for Deepa Mehta's movie, Midnight's Children.